

Unlock Your Potential as a Real-Time Interpreter!

Are you fluent in French and English? Do you want to leverage your language skills while enjoying the flexibility of working from home? If so, this opportunity might be perfect for you!

Why This Role?

Imagine using your bilingual abilities to bridge communication gaps for people and institutions in the US and UK. As a Real-Time Interpreter, you'll facilitate conversations for various entities including banks, post offices, and medical centers, helping them overcome language barriers.

Your Daily Adventures:

Every interpreting session brings new experiences. Whether assisting in a baby's birth, helping a 911 operator during emergencies, guiding a couple through their first home loan, or aiding with emigration office processes, each moment is unique. Your role is dynamic and impactful, providing endless opportunities to make a meaningful difference.

What's in it for You?

- Work Contract with Gi Group: Stability and security in your role.
- Attractive Salary Package: Competitive pay to reward your efforts.
- Language Mastery: Keep your languages sharp and in constant use.
- Full Training & Equipment: Get fully equipped and trained to excel.
- Remote Flexibility: Work from anywhere in Portugal.
- Additional Income Potential: Whether as your primary job or a side gig, you choose!

You're Our Ideal Candidate If you meet the following requirements:

- Fluent in English and French: Communicating in these languages is second nature to you (minimum level C1 in English).
- Experience in Contact Centers: Your background equips you to handle diverse situations with ease.
- Flexible Schedule: Available for shifts from 01 pm to 02 am, Monday to Sunday, with two days off during the week.
- Training Commitment: Ready to engage in training for 6 hours daily over three weeks.
- Empathetic & Neutral: Demonstrate sensitivity and politeness towards people from diverse backgrounds.

About Our Business Partner:

Join forces with a globally recognized American company, a leader in interpreting, translation services, localization, and interpreter training across multiple sectors.
